Foreword

Innumerable are the times that we have retraced our steps to Handley. Here we have grown together in knowledge, love, and friendships; exulted in our joys, and learned to take disappointment with a smile.

And now, as we are about to take the same path again—but this time with our faces turned toward the world and the future, we have tried to produce a yearbook which will help us to recall our lives at Handley in eternal memories.

In honor of Mrs. Garrabrandt the theme of our book illustrates the literature of Medieval England.

Dedication

Because we have found you to be our friend—never too busy to offer a valuable word of advice, never too tired to give us your understanding assistance; because you have contributed infinitely toward making Handley what it is; because you have given your all in guiding us toward being worthy citizens of our school and in preparing us for world citizenship, we, the class of 1949, dedicate our HANDLIAN to you, Mrs. Garrabrandt, in genuine gratitude for the personal interest you have shown in each of us, hoping that you will always remember us; for we can never forget you.

MR. GRAY

Mr. Gray has in his quiet way been a "shoulder to lean upon". Whenever we've needed him, he has pitched in, dissolving our clouds of despair, with his wonderful smile and willingness to help, and turning our hopes into accomplishments.

MRS. HALL

Mrs. Hall has taken a long walk with us through our high school days, but each step has seemed shorter because of her faithfulness. It is largely due to her competent leadership and splendid cooperation that "the dreams that we've dared to dream really have come true".

The Class Poem

TO HANDLEY

A bit afraid, a bit drawn back,
We came to climb your heights.
We strode through columns-stately, tall;
You reached and took our hand.
You'd known of youth like ours before;
You took it for a while to keep;
And then you gave us light
And will to seek the truth.
You gave us friendship true and false
To ponder on.
Our mingled joys, our transient pains,
You shared, you understood.
But now the time approaches when
You give and we receive no more.
Our paths will soon diverge;
For each must find his star,
And stars lie far apart.
Yet in our quest to grasp tomorrow,
Your hands will hold our hearts.

Nov. 12. May I have this dance? Super football dance goes over with a bang! New trio, Babs, Pat, and Hutch, sings "Buttons and Bows."—complete with props.

Nov. 20. Handley plays off for the Championship of Districts 5 and 6. Although the team played a good game, we lost 26-14 to William Byrd in Vinton.

Nov. 25. Martinsburg defeated by the Judges 28-0. Everyone kinda sad seeing 13 members of the team, SENIORS, that is, play their last football game.

Nov. 29. Juniors give their play . . . we reminisce, thinking about our Junior play "The First Dress Suit".

Dec. 9. Step Right Up Folks! HANDLIANS go on sale. Orders are rushing in for the most brilliant, spectacular book that has ever been published.

Dec. 10. SENIOR girls give their assembly program, without the help of a skunk. Mary Louise as Daisy Mae, Patsy as Esther Williams, and Pat as Carmen give the boys in the audience quite a thrill. First BASKETBALL game tonight with Strasburg. We win 75-8.

Dec. 13. SENIOR play committee is busy trying to select a play suitable for the many talented members of the class.

Dec. 17. At last! The play committee has decided on "Junior Miss". Everyone trying to be another Barrymore in the race for a part.

Dec. 19. Christmas Concert. . . We are all awed by the Glee Club's inspiring interpretation of the various carols.

Dec. 21. Hark! The Herald Angels Shout! This is the day that we get out. Christmas holidays begin, and already everyone is getting into the merry mood that comes with mistletoe and strains of Silent Night.

Jan. 3. Into each life some rain must fall—school resumed, and what could be worse than having exams staring us in the face?

Senior Souvenirs

1948—1949

Jan. 5. Fuffy! You impossible character! SENIOR Play cast is chosen, and play production begins.

Jan. 13. "Let's get started," said Mrs. Hall . . . the first rehearsal of that super-special play. The whole cast is in a dither learning their parts.

Jan. 19. Tears, fears, dears; . . . what rhymes with Handley? Last minute for class poem has us all nervous, although we know that "Willy" Shakespeare and "Johnny" Milton have nothing on us.

Jan. 22. Flash! HANDLIAN deadline only 5 days off! Nancy sprouting gray hairs, trying to finish in time.

Jan. 24. Gloom! Exams begin . . . long faces and studious expressions are familiar now.

Jan. 27. Where's page 27? Doe, have you seen the Foreword? You guessed it—today is the deadline for the much looked-forward-to HANDLIAN.

Jan. 31. "THE HANDLIAN" . . . goes to Staunton. Left behind, merely shells of their former selves, are the members of the staff who slaved to make their unsurpassed and unsurpassable year-book.

Feb. 18. Sniff! Everyone enjoying their last SENIOR party together. Girls come stag due to the weekend basketball trip.

March 18. The master production of "Junior Miss" is a big success. Congratulations, cast! !

April 28-29. Apple Blossom. Almost impossible to find yourself in the crowd.

June 4. Baccalaureate Sermon. Can you believe it? Time sure is flying.

June 7. Whew! Exams all over, and we passed 'em!

June 8. Jr.—Sr. Prom. For a real happy time just mix pretty dresses, dreamy music, a swell bunch of people. Juniors do a marvelous job on the gym.

June 9. Sr. Banquet . . . . Class Will, History, and Prophecy are read. Senior Prom really finishes things up.

June 10. EDITORIAL . . . . Although we've all marched to Judge Handley's grave many times before, each step seems a little harder to take because we know that this is the last. Then, Graduation Night. Mixed with tears and goodbys comes the wonderful thought that we had you, HANDLEY, for our Alma Mater.

Executive Council

In order for any organization to function properly, it must have an effective system of government. In our miniature democracy here at Handley the means by which we as students govern ourselves is the Executive Council. It is made up of student representatives from each home room, club, and class. Its officers are elected by the student body. The Executive Council takes care of all school legislation and sponsors academic, athletic, and social events.

Handley has a right to feel proud of her literary teams, especially when they do as well as did last year's. A large number of the contestants captured district honors at Harrisonburg, and Virginia Yates made Handley even more proud of her when she brought home the state championship in Girls' Public Speaking from Charlottesville.

Handlian Staff

The Seniors who compose the Handlian Staff are the students who have striven to bring you, their fellow students and friends, a complete picture of the 1948-'49 school activities by publishing the Handlian. From the time they were appointed to the Staff to the end of this school year, they have worked with diligent, earnest effort in order to present to you a record of their class—the Class of 1949.

Junior Stand

These are the brave souls in the class who struggled through many problems and much bad weather last year to keep up the spirits of the mob of spectators. The Junior Play

Last year the Junior Class presented as the annual play an appropriate one-act comedy, "The First Dress Suit", based on the hilarious escapades of a teen-age boy. Throughout its performance the student audience was kept squirming in their seats by the merriment and laugh-provoking actions of the cast.

A Cappella Choir

Twenty-eight Glee Club members who have a particular desire to achieve higher accomplishments in music make up the A Cappella Choir. The work done by this group deals largely with sacred music sung unaccompanied. The Choir presents special programs on various occasions and always appears at the Christmas and Baccalaureate services.

Boys' Monogram Club

The purpose of the Boys' Monogram Club is to promote interest in athletics and encourage good sportsmanship. Members of the Monogram Club are on hand to keep order at basketball games and are available for other jobs. In order to become a member, a boy must not only receive his JH, but must also prove himself a good sportsman and a hard worker.

Second Row: Schlack, Landacre, Jagiello, Carson, LaFollette, Yates, Perry, Stryker, Nelson

Girls' Monogram Club

With the help and guidance of its two sponsors, the Girls' Monogram Club has gone a step farther in bettering its organization. This year the girls have sponsored the Junior Varsity Cheer Leaders, revised their constitution, and chosen a motto and colors. Any girl who has earned 500 points or more by participating in girls' athletics, as either a Maroon or Shamrock, is eligible to join this club whose one thought is "Sportsmanship Always."

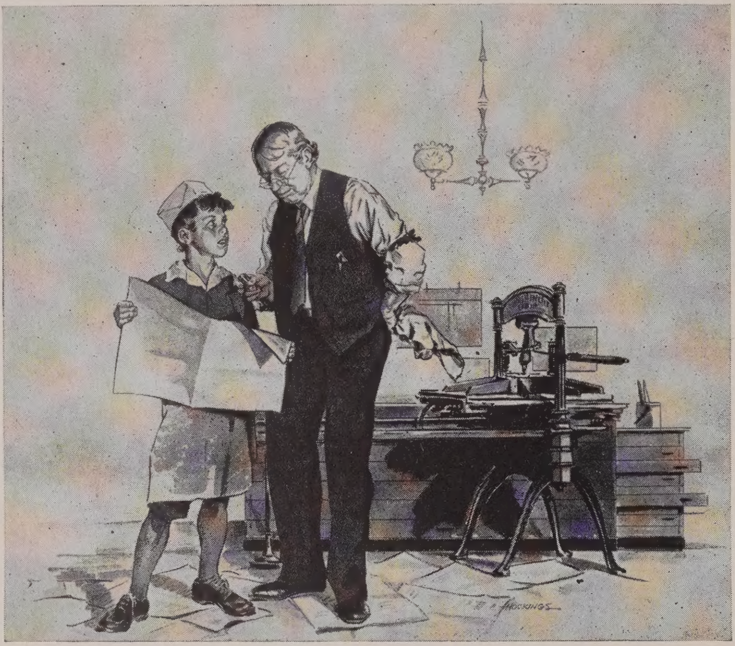
THE WORKINGMAN'S STORE



Sometimes it is the nature of a craft to create an unbreakable tie between itself and the worker in that field, a heart attachment equal to lifetime devotion. One familiar example is PRINTING. Once editor, once compositor, or pressman catches the spirit of the shop, the spell is seldom broken. Like the odor of a camp fire, or a whiff of salt air, the beloved tang of printer's ink, symbolical of a great profession, gets into your heart and soul. School Annuals, Magazines, Newspapers and Special Printing, all smack of it. It is an invisible link that binds all intelligence together. It is the stimulus for creation in business or romance. This craftsmanship, this devotion to service and alertness to business needs, has nourished and developed an enormous industrial vitality, and whichever way the course of the future runs, the printer will always find himself able to adapt his helpfulness to new opportunity.

Years of experience have taught us! Printing Pays Us Only When It Pays You!
